Honor Roll

OF DONORS

LOYOLA
LAW SCHOOL

November, 1988

To All Our Graduates and Friends:

Thank you for your support of Loyola Law School in 1987-88. Your participation in a variety of projects and programs is greatly appreciated.

As you may know, following the ABA accreditation visit, an extra effort was made to increase the number of alumni supporting the campus and specifically the scholarship program. Led by the Alumni Board of Governors, this effort was successful. It increased by 27% the number of alumni participating in the annual giving program.

A special campaign to honor the memory of the Rev. Joseph J. Donovan, S.J., was also successfully conducted last year. Alumni and friends of the Law School who fondly remember Father Donovan generously pledged over $300,000 to more than meet the challenge grant of $250,000 from the Fritz B. Burns Foundation. As a result of this effort, Donovan Hall will be dedicated in February of 1989.

It was a good year. Thank you again for all your interest and support.

Arthur N. Frakt, Dean

THE ADVOCATES CAMPAIGN

The Advocates Campaign is Loyola Law School's annual giving program. Chairman Angela Hawekotte led this year's campaign to a successful conclusion. For the second year in a row, alumni gifts exceeded $210,000. The graph below illustrates the growth in the number of alumni participating in the annual giving program.
